A Prophetic Statement of Faith

In a world that sometimes seems to be out of control, here is a centring prayer that speaks of hope if we are willing to love unconditionally. This is a prayer that does not see God changing the world but asks us to believe and work together to bring in God's kingdom.

We believe this world can be a place of hope;
where power is shared;
where those with plenty fill the plates of those who are hungry;
where there is concern and action to secure freedom and justice.
We believe this world can be a place of love;
Where love triumphs over war;
Where people of different faiths live together in good will;
where excuses give way to action on behalf of peace.
We believe this world can be a place of light:
where resources are shared;
where there is unity among neighbours;
where God's realm comes.
We believe this world can be a place of truth:
where words of honesty are heard more often
than words of propaganda;
where there is honour among those who govern;
where integrity guides our daily lives.
We believe in God's way of love and peace
and we will proclaim it. AMEN.

A Prayer for this week

We pray for all those who are emotionally or physically struggling. We especially pray for those who are sick or having medical treatments this week or in the coming months. We pray for all those who are grieving from the loss of a loved one, a job or a physical limitation and we especially pray for ourselves, that we have the courage to ask God for the strength to face all these things knowing He is with us each step we take. AMEN
