Matthew 25: 35 – 40

Presiders Silvia Yang

From Korea

Silence

In the still small voice we find God.

In the mountains of South Korea

A Buddhist monastery for nuns

Assembly place with temple behind.

All is quiet our voices hushed.

rustling leaves in the trees

Birds calling on the wing.

A sense of the holy.

In the temple

Eyes assaulted by golden images

A cathedral of silence

Divine experience - in the Silence!

In a Buddhist temple in the hills.

At home in the wee small hours.

In a forest walk.

In the silence between friends.

In silences between prayers.

All we need to do is listen.

Another day another temple

Through calming trees

To an entry bridge proudly proclaiming

WE ARE TWO!

Always two not one.

Same climb into silence.

A temple 1500 years in the making.

Longtime presence
 Longtime silence.
 All we have to do is listen.

A Prayer for this week

God of love, you call us to love you and to love our neighbour.

We thank you for the children entrusted to our care.

Make our love practical: give us courage to ask, humility to learn, and faithfulness in the small tasks of keeping watch.

Bless every leader of your church, and make us a people who protect, listen and act.

In the name of Jesus, who welcomed the children.

Amen.

PRAY FOR CLYDE

Please join us in pray for Kim Hammond as he pioneers the work in Clyde and for our potential core team.

Please pray for the first stage:

- Listening to the community.
- Serving at a local school.

Can you help?

By dropping off a cake or biscuits to share with clients while they are at the Drop-in Centre. Visit and mingle with clients for one hour per month either in the evening or during the day. These 2 tasks can be done at the same time or separately.
