Being humble by Geoff Serpell

A story doing the rounds goes like this: A rich young woman sat beside a poor elderly man on a plane. Upon taking her seat, she summonsed the flight attendant and requested another seat.
She did not intend to sit beside such a person and everyone on the plane became aware of her attitude.
The attendant consulted with the flight captain, and they devised a plan to solve the problem.
The attendant returned and said, "we have found a seat in first class, and we are sorry for you having to travel with such a terrible person".
As the woman rose out of her seat, the flight attendant reached out her arm towards the poor elderly man, "Sir, will you please follow me?"
The passengers all started applauding.

Reflection
Never look down on other people. We are all equal in God's sight.
Regardless of what you have achieved in life, stay humble.
The bad news is that time flies. The good news is that you are the pilot.

A Prayer for Humility by William Barclay

O Father, give us the humility which realizes its ignorance, Admits its mistakes, recognizes its need, welcomes advice, Accepts rebuke. Help us always to praise rather than to criticize, To sympathize rather than to discourage, to build rather than to destroy,
And to think of people at their best rather than at their worst.

This we ask for thy name's sake. Amen
